ONTARIO RESORT IN CANADA SLATED TO OPEN IN FALL 2008

Minett, Ontario, Canada – July 26, 2008

This fall, Canada's most luxurious new Ontario resort will open its doors for the first time for their highly anticipated opening. The Rosseau, A JW Marriott Resort & Spa will initially open with the launch of 178 brand new guest rooms, a resort shop, a cafe, two restaurants and the fitness centre with a year-round indoor/outdoor pool.

Later in the fall, after the initial opening has already occurred, the conference centre will open, followed by Spa Rosseau and the Paignton House wing of guest rooms, which will thus complete the opening of the entire hotel.

The Rosseau, A JW Marriott Resort & Spa will be completely unveiled in time for a fall golf getaway, late fall meetings, conferences and spa retreats - not to mention the most magical time of year - the holiday season!

Sparkling Ontario accommodations will feature spectacular views of Lake Rosseau and a cozy fireplace in every room and suite, transforming a typical hotel stay into a peaceful Ontario retreat. Guests will also be able to meander through the 700 acres of private, wilderness preserves encompassed as part of Red Leaves, or have the opportunity to lounge at one of four on-site pools or at the picturesque beach. The natural setting is sure to inspire both business and leisure guests alike, with a restful Canadian lake resort that boasts deluxe amenities and accommodations, and an array of indulgent and thoughtful inclusions.
